NPGA SAFETY AWARD

The NPGA Safety Award is conferred upon a person, small company or branch of a large corporation in recognition of distinguished service to the cause of safety in the propane industry.

Nominees for the NPGA Safety Award may be proposed only by a member of the National Propane Gas Association. Nominations shall be sent in writing to the Chairman of the Technology, Standards and Safety (TS&S) Committee by a detailed statement outlining the nominee's outstanding contribution to the safety of our industry.

Not more than three awards shall be given in any one year, and it shall not be required to give an award every year. Committee Chairman shall notify the NPGA Chairman and the President as to whether or not a recipient has been selected.

When a recipient is chosen, the name shall be kept confidential, except the Chairman shall issue the following notifications:

1. The recipient of the award shall be notified no more than one month and not less than two weeks in advance of the presentation, and the recipient at the same time shall be advised that the notification is confidential and that the recipient shall in no way divulge or publicize this notification.
2. The President of NPGA shall be given the recipient's name at the time the recipient is notified so that the award may be prepared for presentation. He and his staff shall be committed to complete secrecy.

The award shall be presented by the TS&S Committee Chairman.
